

ENGAGING YOUNG PEOPLE

Engaging Young People in Environmental Projects

Course Aims

To enable delegates to promote sustainable behaviour and effectively engage young people in initiatives to improve the environment

Course Objectives

By the end of this training candidates will be able to:

- Identify and use existing environmental programmes to engage young people (aged from Early Years to late teens)
- Identify partners who can support the involvement of young people in environmental and sustainability initiatives
- Consider and adopt practical examples of environmental/sustainability projects for young people
- Consider and apply effective methods of communicating with and campaigning to young people
- Develop a personal action plan for engaging young people in environmental projects

Who Would Benefit from Attending this Course?

This course is aimed primarily at local authority officers, but staff from other organisations with an interest in engaging young people in environmental projects or educating young people about sustainable behaviour will still benefit from attending.

Course Duration

1 day

What have others said ?

"This course has exceeded my expectations, I would like to get more involved with Eco Schools and now feel more confident to do so"

-Alison Wainwright, Newcastle-Under-Lyme Borough Council

This course can be delivered in house to any number of your staff (subject to a minimum charge) and all our courses are delivered by experienced and qualified tutors who will deliver the course to ensure it meets your objectives.

For more information or to request a quote please contact the Training Team on training@keepbritaintidy.org or by phone on 01942 612625.