

PACE – POLICE AND CRIMINAL EVIDENCE TRAINING

Course Outline

As part of the Keep Britain Tidy Enforcement Training suite, this course offers a day's comprehensive training on all the legal aspects and practical operations front line staff should be aware of in order to effectively carry out their role. It's delivered by our legal expert, an experienced and practicing solicitor with a strong background in environmental legislation and enforcement.

Course Aims

This course will introduce the essential requirements necessary for inviting suspected offenders to attend a voluntary interview.

Course Objectives

By the end of the training candidates will be able to:

- Understand applicable legislative provisions and Codes of Practice required when interviewing suspects
- Apply the Law and Codes of Practice
- Develop skills for interview structure and technique
- Understand pre-interview disclosure
- Conduct an interview and dealing with issuing a caution
- Understand the role of legal representatives and third parties
- Prepare successfully for an interview
- Review evidence following interview
- Respond to challenges of interview evidence

Who would benefit from attending this course?

This course is suitable for managers, investigators and staff involved in enforcement and prosecution where court proceedings may follow.

Course duration

One day

What have others said?

“Very well presented and informative”

Dennis Allen, City of London Corporation

This course can be run in-house, or the hosting can be shared between local authorities to keep costs down.

Discounts are available for Expert & Exemplar Network Members. For a quote or for more information, please contact us by emailing training@keepbritaintidy.org or call us on 01942 612 655.

Did you know that Keep Britain Tidy also runs The Enforcement Academy? A course that provides all the knowledge, skills and tools required when working in frontline enforcement.