

EA CONTINUED COMPETENCE TRAINING

Course Outline

The Continued Competence course builds on the knowledge gained when you undertook the 5 day Enforcement Academy. The course is also suitable for managers who are unable to commit to the full five days but want to gain an overview of the Enforcement Academy.

This is an interactive course with opportunities to share real life experiences, conduct an interview under caution and prepare a Friskies schedule in relation to environmental sentencing.

The course includes a mandatory 45 minute online element (delegates will need access to a computer and internet) and an informative and interactive day in the classroom.

Part 1: online session

Approximately 45 mins

- The 3 phases of enforcement
- Standards of Conduct
- Levels of consistency
- Health and safety
- Communication in conflict situations
- Managing conflict situations and avoidance strategies

Part 2: classroom session

Refresher training building on knowledge gained from the five day accredited Enforcement Academy and intervening two years in practice, to ensure delegates are abreast of any legislative changes and can apply any new powers and functions in the workplace.

The session includes an environmental legislation refresher and update on

- Appreciate key environmental issues on the central Government and local community's agenda

- Understand any changes in the legislative framework in relation to environmental crime
- Identify options available in order to protect the local environment
- Conduct an interview under caution
- Apply appropriate enforcement response
- Consider strengths and weaknesses of prosecution evidence
- Apply Environmental Sentencing Guidelines

This is an interactive course with opportunities to share real life experiences and case scenarios to make the learning experience realistic to the issues officers face on the front line i.e. conducting an interview under caution and preparing a Friskies schedule in relation to environmental sentencing.
